

DIocese of LEICESTER

A CALENDAR OF PRAYER

for corporate worship and personal devotion

Sacred God, you are the Holy One,
the source of life and the fountain of our hope.
Pour out your Holy Spirit on your Church;
breathe into it the fire of your love.
Set us free to sing your praises, that as we share your life
so we may taste and see your gracious love.
Amen.

A GUIDE TO THIS CALENDAR OF PRAYER

Welcome to the Diocesan Calendar of Prayer:

There is a heading for every week that relates to the season and a particular theme of concern. This is prayed for in the Monday petitions, as well as during the week as a whole, and there is a prayer or quotation at the end of the week related to the theme – which can be used throughout the week.

The calendar of Holy Days is from Common Worship. This is sometimes supplemented with the names of local saints and worthies or with reference to a church in the diocese dedicated to the saint.

Every day there is a prayer bidding from the Anglican Cycle of Prayer, uniting us with more than seventy million Anglicans around the world; the Sunday petition announces the Province or theme of the week.

At least four benefices are usually prayed for each week. Church schools and their head teachers are prayed for generally in relation to the parishes in which they are set.

Each week also contains daily prayer biddings for one of each of the following: diocesan officers and chaplains, local institutions, social, political and economic concerns, those who suffer, the wider world and international or mission agencies.

Other diocesan prayer biddings relate to the Bishop's diary, diocesan events and meetings (not usually deanery or parish ones), and other organisations.

Any prayer requests for the next quarter (Jan to Mar 2010) should be sent or emailed to Rachel.Radford@leccofe.org before the end of November 2009.

Lord our God

You breathe new life into your people
 Inspire us as we develop Cathedral Square
 So that it may be full of new life.

Help us to make it a place of welcome
 A place where all people can flourish
 A place of prayer, of laughter and of wonder

A place which gives glory to you
 Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen
