Southwell Choral Society

Event Date: Saturday 14th November

Haydn's The Seasons. Southwell Minster. Saturday 14 November 7.30pm Southwell Choral Society accompanied by their orchestra, the Ensemble of Southwell, and three soloists.

Vivaldi was not the only composer to write a universally popular Four Seasons. Composed after The Creation Haydn's oratorio The Seasons features three peasant soloists who sing of the joys, trial and tribulation of country life throughout the year, complete with a chorus of villagers. Haydn's genius transforms many genre scenes – summer storm, hunting episodes, daybreak, gloomy winter fog peasant dances – into something truly spectacular, in keeping with his deeply held religious convictions.

Tickets: £12.50 front nave, £10.00 rear nave £8.50 side aisles from Peter Briant.

Please send a s.a.e. to: – 8 Valebrook Road, Stathern, LE14 4EB.
